

After seeing the news release and viewing cspan tonight on todays decision by the fcc commission, I wish to disagree on the decision made today. We should be helping the local Bell Systems invest and improve in equipment instead of giving clecs a free ride. I hope your decision can be amended or improved in the near future.